FOR SALE.

TO GRAZIERS.

In pursuance of the last will and testament of General David Forman, deceased, will be exposed to sale, at public vendue, (on the premises) on Wednesday the 25th day of October next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day,

THAT very valuable FARM and PLANTATION, lying on the Long Marsh in Queen Anne's county, state of Maryland, containing about five hundred acres, about fifteen miles from Chester town, six from Church hill, and twelve from the head of Chester.

This property is an object of very great speculation, particularly to any person in the grazing line, and in fact to any person wishing to vest their money in lands. There is a very large proportion of said farm laid down in timothy, and will cut grass sufficient, I doubt not, to pay a neat profit of 500 dollars a-year. There are also about twenty acres more cleared and fit to lay down in grass; and what renders it more valuable is, that when once the timothy is well set, it will last any person's life time: And what is called the bed of the Marsh, (of which there is a considerable part belonging to this farm) the soil is from four to six feet deep, of a black rich loom, and will average from two and an half to three tons of timothy an acre; and for two years past all the hay which could be spared from the farm, has sold at the stack for five pounds a ton. The arable land is calculated for wheat, rye, Indian corn, and particularly for what is called kite-foot or bright tobacco; it is well timbered, and contains maple swamps, that when cleared, will make meadows equal to any on the farm.

Any person wishing to purchase, can view the premises on application to Mr. Stephen Forman, on said farm. The conditions of sale will be, one half the purchase money on the first day of January next, and the remainder on the first day of May following.

WILLIAM G. FORMAN,
Surviving Executor.

By JAMES KINSEY, Esq.
Chief Justice of the supreme court of New-Jersey.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT upon application to me by Joseph P. Minnick, and John W. Bloomfield for themselves, by John W. Bloomfield in right of Ann his wife, William Bullus, John Moore, in the right of his wife Mary, John Bullus and Ruth Bullus, who claim an undivided sixth part of all that tract of land situate, lying and being in Springfield, Burlington county, containing eleven hundred and eighty-eight acres and a half of an acre or thereabouts, formerly devized by Mary Ludlam to Francis Bullus, who by his last will and testament devised the same tract to William Bowser, and John Turner in trust for Samuel Bullus his son in fee, which said Samuel Bullus by his deed bearing date on or about the 5th day of March 1796, conveyed the same to his children Francis Bullus, and the same Ann Bloomfield, formerly Ann Bullus, William Bullus, Mary Bullus, now Mary Moore, John Bullus and Ruth Bullus, I have nominated and appointed Job Lippencott, Esq. of Springfield aforesaid, Abraham Stockton and Chas. Ellis, both of the city of Burlington, commissioners, to divide the said tract into six equal shares or parts, and unless proper objections are stated to me on the 21st day of Nov. next, at my office in the city of Burlington at ten o'clok in the morning of that day, the said Job Lippencott, Abraham Stockton and Charles Ellis, will then be appointed the Commissioners to make petition of the said tract of land, pursuant to an act, entitled, "an act for the more easy petition of lands held by Co-partners, joint tenants, and tenants in common" passed the eleventh day of November in the year of our Lord 1789—Given under my hand the 30th day of August A. To BOTANISTS, GARDENERS and FLORISTS.

AND to all other ladies and gentlemen, curious in ornamental, rare exotic or foreign plants and flowers, cultivated in the green house, hot house, or stove, and in the open ground—A large and numerous variety of such rarities is now offered for sale, being the acquirement of many years earnest application, great assiduity, and considerable expence.

The present proprietor having, from the natural growth and successful increase of his plants, as well as from frequent other acquitements and additions to his collection, so far increased it as to render the allotted apartments not sufficiently large and commodious, is induced to make this offer, or sacrifice. After reserving a general and suitable stock, he has to spare a well assorted and great variety of those things, comprising a beautiful collection, sufficient to decorate, furnish, and ornament a spacious or handsome green-house AT ONCE. The whole collection, for that department, will be sold on very moderate and easy terms; or the proprietor may be induced to divide it into two equal lots; but he does not on any account intend to allow them to be selected or culled out by separately selling single plants or small lots in any thing like a retail way.

The whole is a truly valuable collection, such as is very rarely to be met with for sale on this side the Atlantic—indeed a moiety of them would comprise a very desirable and extensive variety, consisting of many or most of the tropical fruits, and other rare and curious finely ornamental trees, shrubs, and plants, with a numerous and abundant assortment of choice bulbous, tuberous, and fibrous rooted flowering and ornamental plants in mixtures; all of good or superior kinds, as may be seen by the catalogue. For which, and for any further necessary information, please to apply to John Cummings, at the Alms-house, Messrs. SPECULATION.

TO BE SOLD,

AT Public Vendue, on Monday the 23d of September next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. at the house of the Subscriber, living in the town of New-Castle, State of Delaware, a number of valuable suitable for building on, being the South square of the flourishing town of New-Castle aforesaid, distant from Philadelphia thirty-three miles.

This valuable property is highly capable of improvement, being immediately on the river Delaware, having a number of wharf lots on it; and from the depth of the water (earth and materials for wharfing being easily procured) there is no doubt but wharves would bring a handsome interest.

This property consists of five acres more or less, in one body; lays high, and is divided into lots to suit every description of persons.—New-Castle is one of the most healthy and flourishing towns on the continent; and from the increase of trade it has raised property to four times the value it was seven years past.—The number of vessels bound out and in, which stop for supplies of stock, &c. &c. and the whole carriage of goods between Philadelphia and Baltimore, is now through this place. The packets and stages from the aforesaid cities, &c. &c. make it very lively: there is not, at this time, one house to be rented in the place; and the number of applications for houses make it an object for persons to improve. There are a number of elegant and useful buildings now going on, a Public Academy and several private Schools. The malignant Fever has never made any progress, and the Ague scarcely known; the number of children in this place is a convincing proof of the healthiness of it. The prospect of the river Delaware, up and down is delightful; as far as the eye can distinguish you may view the vessels in different attitudes There is reason to suppose that public piers for the Navy will be built here, as vessels can sail from this place when the river is fast at Philadelphia.

The conditions of sale will be easy and made known on the day of sale. Places of public worship, market and mills are very contiguous

JOHN DARRAGH.

N. B.—A plat of the above will be exhibited any time previous, as well as on the day of sale.

WESTMORELAND MEETING.

SEPTEMBER TERM.

The grand jury of the county of Westmoreland, taking into their serious consideration the great importance of electing a suitable character to the office of governor of Pennsylvania, and observing with regret the means which have industriously been taken for party purposes to misrepresent the character of one of the candidates for that office, in a moral and religious point of view, have thought it not improper, with deference and respect, to acquaint their fellow-citizens that they have seen written testimonials under the signatures of a minister and the elders of several Presbyterian congregations, in the vicinity of Mr. Ross's residence, ever since his first attainment to mature age, highly honourable to his character and contradictory of such reports. Mr. Ross's amiable character in other respects, as a man; his confessed talents as a public man; his patriotic attachment to the particular interest, constitution and laws of his country, being so universally known, any remarks on these subjects from us can afford no new information. But we take the liberty to add, that, from a comparative review of the merits of the two candidates, we do cordially agree to give our decided preference and support to Mr Ross, and therefore beg leave to recommand him to our fellow-citizens, as highly worthy of their suffrages for the office of governor at the ensuing election.

Benj. Davis, Foreman.	John Peter Miller,
Edward Haiferty,	John Mears,
Nicholas Swope,	Nicholas Day,
Christopher Truby,	James M'Grew,
Henry Tash,	Daniel Thompson,
Samuel Elder,	John M. St. Clair,
William Clarke,	Samuel Robb,
Martin Overhalt,	John Daily.
Wendle Guier,

N. B. There were four other gentlemen on the grand jury, one of whom voted for Mr. Ross, but objected to the publication of an address. The other three, viz. Jeremiah Murry, Esq. Alexander Brown, Esq. and Mr. Peter Rough, refused to declare their voices on the occasion.

At a meeting of the citizens of Westmoreland co. seriously impressed with the importance of the approaching electing of governor for this state, met at the court-house in Greensburg, on the eleventh day of September, anno domini, 1799, about two hundred present.

Dr. DAVID MARCHANT, Chairman.

It was stated that this meeting was called by the friends to the election of James Ross, to consult on the best means of promoting it, and ascertaining the sense of the people attending court, from all parts of the county. Certain certificates transmitted by the committee of Washington county, for promoting the election of Mr. Ross, relative to his religious and moral character, addressed to general William Jack, were laid before the meeting and gave very general satisfaction.

Upon a free mutual communication, the following propositions were adopted as the sentiments of the citizens present:

1st. That a free government, constituted on the basis of justice and equal rights, cultivating peace, and preserving safety to the citizens at large, and maintaining respectability with foreign nations, is one of the greatest political blessings. Although no country in the world can boast of absolute perfection, in that or any other respect, the people of America have as much, if not more reason, than those of any other country to be satisfied with the rights and privileges which they enjoy, under their federal and several state constitutions. They appear to be well designed for promoting the happiness of the people, to which little would be wanting but a more general love of virtue, with less of a factious spirit and disposition. A truly republican government must be supported by the former, whilst the latter will finally destroy, by division, any government, be it ever so good as to constitution and abstract principle.

2d. That although this meeting will not alledge that the laws enacted under those constitutions, have been altogether free from human error, it is their opinion they have been, upon the whole, intended for the common welfare. That, in most instances, the administration of the general government, has, with the blessing of Providence, greatly contributed in promoting the essential objects for which it has been appointed.

3d. That the United States, having incurred a large debt, which was due as well to the people of other countries for loans, made to these States, in the course of the war for independence, as to their own citizens; for the payment of which no means were or could be provided until their adoption of the new constitution. The federal legislature were bound for the support of the credit of the nation, both at home and abroad, to take proper measures for paying the interest, and providing for the gradual extinguishment of the public debt. That neither could this be done, nor the protection arising from laws and government be afforded, without taxes. This meeting will not undertake to judge with certainty, of the whole system of finance, adopted for those ends, or for protecting an extended frontier, as well as trade and commerce on the ocean, fortifying our sea ports, and being prepared to encounter foreign hostility. Yet they do not hesitate in giving it as their opinion, that all these objects were neeessary to be provided for, and that the laws for raising revenue, in so great and so diversified a country as the continent of America; although they may not be equal as to every individual and particular and uniform throughout the whole, and as little oppressive on any of the States as could well be devised.

4th. That best support of a good government is the Union of a virtuous people, possessing a reasonable confidence in it, and falsely to vilify and misrepresent public measures and public men, is dangerous to the peace and happiness of society. This abuse of liberty, instead of supporting the laws has an evident tendency to destroy them and introduce disorder. The present meeting highly disapprove of all unjust calumnies against the character of either chief justice M'Kean or James Ross; and however proper it may be, to be acquinted with them, to be qualified to form a right judgment in their respective merits, all wilful falshood ought to be shunned in a regard to both.

5th. As the independence of the United States rests on spirited and prudent resistance of all foreign influence or aggression, so their security depends upon harmony between the government of the individual States and the government of the Union The States are members of one great family; the Union and prosperity of which, like every other family, can only be promoted by the United and prudent exertions of all the members for the good of the whole.

6th. He only therefore is best qualified for being a governor of any state, who is free from all foreign influence, partiality or prejudice; and whilst he will neither surrender the rights of the state, over which he presides, nor obstruct the exercise of those of the union, is firmly disposed to cultivate harmony among both and all.

The foregoing propositions were agreed to without a dissenting voice.

7th. That JAMES ROSS, who has resided among us for upwards of fifteen years, being generally and deservedly respected for his talents, good principles and fidelity, in the duties of the several offices in which he has hitherto been engaged, this meeting is fully persuaded that he will fill the station of governor of Pensylvania, when elected, with great reputation, pursuing the true interests of this state and of the union; and as the condition and local interests of the western country, are well known to him, we entertain a well grounded belief of his disposition to promote those interests to every reasonable degree.

The last resolution was agreed to with only five dessenting votes:

It was therefore resolved, that James Ross, be recommended as governor to the free suffrages of our fellow citizens of this state, at the ensuing election, and that the citizens now present will support him accordingly.

Resolved further, That these proceedings be signed by the chairman, and that a copy thereof, with a copy of the certificates from Washington county, be printed for general public information.

DAVID MARCHANT, Chairman.

At a meeting of a number of the citizens of Philadelphia, convened by public notice, at the Union school-house, in Germantown, on Saturday the 21st of Sept. 1799, for the purpose of nominating suitable persons to fill the several offices which will become vacant at the ensuing Election.—

was appointed Chairman:

Whereupon it was unanimously resolved, That the wisdom, integrity, real patriotism, uniform principles, and affable demeanor of JAMES ROSS, of Pittsburgh, eminently qualify him for the dignified station of Chief Magistrate of this commonwealth, and justly entitle him to the suffrages of his fellow-citizens; and that the persons composing this meeting will give their votes, and exercise their influence, to promote his election to that office.

Resolved unanimously, That this meeting approves of the nomination of JOHN JONES, of Lower Dublin, by their fellow citizens of this county; and will support him and JOSEPH BALL, at the ensuing election, as Senators, for the district composed of the city and county of Philadelphia and of the county of Delaware.

Resolved unanimously, That Michael Keppele, Samuel W. Fisher, William Hall, George Fox, Godfrey Haga, and Robert Frazer, deserving and possessing the confidence of this meeting, be recommended to the choice of our fellow-citizens as Members of the House of Representatives.

Resolved unanimously, that the gentlemen whose names are mentioned in the following tickets, are well qualified to serve our fellow-citizens in the corporation of Philadelphia.

Select Council.

Samuel Mickle Fox, Samuel Coates, John Miller, junior, and Abijah Dawes.

Common Council.

Kearney Wharton, John Rugan, Thomas Cuthbert, Joseph M'Goffin, Laurence Herbert, Daniel Smith, Henry Drinker, jun Michael Keppele, Thomas P. Cope, Joseph Hopkinson, Thomas Parker, George Plumsted, Gideon Hill Wells, Malcom M'Donald, Caspar W. Morris, Jonathan Jones, Pascbal Hollingsworth, Edward Pennington, Timothy Paxson, and James Milnor.

Resolved, That J. Wall, M. Keppele, and Joshua Humphreys be a committee to ieform our fellow-citizens of the county of Delaware, that this meeting approves of the nomination of John Jones, of Lower Dublin, and earnestly requests their concurrence and support in favour of the said John Jones and Joseph Ball, at the ensuing election.

Ordered, that the minutes of the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and published in the Philadelphia newspapers.

Levi Hollingsworth, chairman.

Z. Poulson, jun. secretary.

LONDON, July 24.

The preparations for the secret expedition every day acquire new force. In consequence of an application made by the right honorable Henry Dundas, the Directors of the East India Company have permitted the following ships to enter into engagements with government for three months from the 5th August next, during which time they are to be employed as transports. The ships thus made over are,

The Queen	Busbridge
Phœnix	Rockingham
Lord Walsingham	Melville Castle
Earl Spencer	Good Hope, and
Prince William Henry	Hawke.

By this arrangement Ministers will secure means of transporting a very powerful body of men, and without drawing away from the coal and coasting trade so many of the regular vessels as to occasion an interruption, or give pretence for a rise in the price of articles. The employment of so many large ships certainly gives a colour to the report that it is not British troops only that are to be employed in the expedition, but that there is to be a formidable co-operation from our allies. In every way the Republic of France is to be attacked; by the most skilful negociators and agents stationed at the most convenient points, who are to exert all the influence of argument, and by the most powerful armies, who are to assail every side of the still gigantic enemy.

This campaign will therefore be as vigorous and united as all the former ones have been languid and dispirited. If she shall survive the energy of this attack she is immortal.

The transports to be employed on the foreign expedition are to be ready the beginning of next month, when the ships which have sailed, in order to bring from the Continent the Russian troops, are expected to return.

A private letter from Vienna, dated June 29, states that Moreau had only 9000 men before he received his reinforcements. He has complained to Marshal Suwarrow, that no quarter is given to the French soldiers To this complaint, the latter replied, that a body of French troops, after having laid down their arms, made a sudden attack and fired upon the allied troops. The provocation, therefore, originated with the French soldiery.

The following letter was written by the late General Hoche, a short time previous to his death, to the war Minister Scherer; "were I not convinced that the Directory will soon punish your perfidy, I would not give myself the trouble to tell you that I shall no longer carry on any correspondence with you. Was it for you to present an address to the armies—you who are the friend and the most active agent of the conspirators? You who have surrounded us with spies and persecuted the friends of the government. Let your name be speedily forgotten by Republicans whom you have betrayed—who abhor you."

When this letter was written, Scherer was War Minister.

It was observed by Laurent in the Council of Five Hundred, in the sitting of the 21st inst. in support of the necessity of making enquiry into the sums received by the agents of Government in the conquered countries, that he had himself received 65 millions in contributions, 15 of which had been raised within 15 days.

The Chouans are again becoming very formidable in France. On the 26th of last month, three engagements took place between them and the Republican troops, many of whom were killed, and the captain of a corps of grenadiers was literally cut to pieces.

General Suwarrow has written to General Moreau, that if the laws passed in France against emigrants shall be put in force against those whom he has in his army, he will make reprisals on the French prisoners.

There was a great want of stage effect in the late changes at Paris. The actors who had made such a figure for several scenes, sneaked off the stage like mere candle snuffers. After such a tame catastrophe, we cannot be surprised that the Piece excited no interest. If it is to be repeated, it will be battle or a gibbet, to produce a striking effect.

The wager between Sir Robert Walpole, and Pulteney, afterwards Earl of Bath, about the quotation from Horace, "Nil conscire sibi nulla pallescere culpa" is well known. Sir Robert lost the guinea he laid on his knowledge of Latin, and on its being decided against him tossed it across the table of the House of Commons to Pulteney. —The latter caught it, saying it was the first money he had received from the Treasury for many years, and should be the last. This celebrated guinea is now in the possession of Sir William Pulteney, and it will generally be allowed that it could not be in safer custody.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS,
JUNE 25.

Strickling v. Knudſten.

This is a mercantile caſe of conſiderable import.—The plaintiff was a ſeaman on board a Daniſh ſhip, which ſailed from Altona for London, and the defendant is the captain. When the ſhip arrived in the Pool, and had delivered her cargo, on the 26th of laſt May, the men, eight in number, demanded to know whether they were to return immediately home? The captain would not ſatisfy them, and informed them, that having ſigned articles at Altona to continue with the ſhip during her voyage, they ſhould not leave the ſhip. They then complained that the ſtores were unſafe, and the ſhip rendered ſo by the tackle; and that the proviſions laid in for the homeward voyage were bad and unwholeſome. Theſe complaints were not attended to; and on the 27th of May they all ſtruck and left the ſhip, except the mate and boatſwain. They did not, as appeared by the evidence of Mr. Wolfe, the Daniſh Conſul, apply to him to redreſs their complaints, but immediately brought their actions for their wages of four dollars per month for 21 months. The captain refuſed payment, alledged, that they had violated their agreement, of courſe had forfeited their wages.

On behalf of the ſeamen, only one witneſs was called, who ſwore that the proviſions, viz. the peaſe, beef and ſour crout, were all unwholeſome; and particularly, that the ſtores and proviſions for the homeward voyage were purchaſed from the refuſe of other ſhips in the river.

Mr. Serjeant Cockill, for the plaintiff, inſiſted, that under ſuch circumſtances the men were not bound by any agreement, but that they were authorized to leave the ſhip, and inſiſt upon their wages; the defendant having himſelf, in the firſt inſtance, violated his contract, and evaded his duty.

On the part of the captain, Mr. Serjeant, Shepherd called the mate and the boatſwain, Jahannes Boak and Peter Berge, who poſitively ſwore that the proviſions were good and wholeſome, and that the captain allowed them plenty of it. The ſhip was well fitted, and was to all intents ſea worthy.

Two cuſtom houſe tide waiters were called, who proved in the moſt poſitive terms, that the proviſions, whilſt in the port of London, were of the beſt quality; and that the captain, the crew, and themſelves, fared equally alike.

Judge Rooke was clearly of opinion, that the ſeamen ought not to have left the ſhip, without going to the conſul to complain, and if they really had any grievances, to take every ſtep to get them redreſſed; before they deſerted their duty. It was the glory of the Engliſh law, he ſaid, that the Judges and juries protected all foreigners, particularly ſeamen; but the captains of ſhips muſt be equally protected in their juſt rights—The jury conſulted, and found a verdict for the defendant.

ROLLA's ADDRESS TO THE PERUVIANS,
IN THE TEMPLE OF THE SUN,

Written by Mr. Sheridan.

SHERIDAN's PIZARRO

Is dedicated to his amiable Conſort, in the following elegant terms:

"To her, whoſe approbation of the Drama, and whoſe peculiar delight in the applauſe it has received from the public, have been to me the higheſt gratification its ſucceſs has produced; I dedicate this Play.

"Richard Brinsley, Sheridan."

"My brave Aſſociates—Partners of my toil, my feelings and my fame! can Rolla's voice add vigour to the virtuous energies which inſpire your hearts? No—you have judged as I have, the foulneſs of the crafty plea by which theſe bold invaders would delude you—Your generous ſpirit has compared as mine has, the motives, which, in a war like this, can animate their minds, and ours. They, by a ſtrange frenzy driven, fight for power, for plunder, and extended rule—we, for our country, our altars, and our homes. They follow an adventurer whom they fear—and obey a power which they hate—we ſerve a Monarch whom we love—a GOD whom we adore—Whenever they move in anger, deſolation tracks their progreſs!—Whenever they pauſe in amity, affliction mourns their friendſhip!—They boaſt, they come but to improve our ſtate, enlarge our thoughts, and free us from the yoke of error! Yes—they will give enlightened freedom to our minds, who are themſelves the ſlaves of paſſion, avarice, and pride. They offer us their protection—Yes ſuch protection as vultures give to lambs—covering and devouring them?—They call on us to barter all of good we have inherited and proved, for the deſperate chance of ſomething better which they promiſe.—Be our plain anſwer this: The throne we honour is the people's choice—the laws we reverence are our brave Father's legacy—the faith we follow teaches us to live in bonds of charity with all mankind, and die with hope of bliſs beyond the grave. Tell your invaders this, and tell them too, we ſeek no change; and, leaſt of all, ſuch change as they would bring us."

MR. FENNO,

"THE AURORA," a few days paſt, preſented to its readers, a calculation of the approaching election, rendering a majority of between 4000 and 5000 votes in favor of its patron M'Kean. It was intended to raiſe the drooping ſpirits of the party; but is to any one at all acquainted with the eaſtern parts of the State a convincing proof that the Federaliſts muſt ſucceed. Only change the ſtate of the votes in Lancaſter, Cheſter, Berks and Bucks from what Duane predicts, to what it is well known to any one acquainted with thoſe counties, it muſt be, and the majority declares for Mr. Roſs.

Any calculation that can be made upon tenable, or even plauſible data, will render the majority in the ſame way. Take the repreſentation in the State Legiſlature; there has been for many years a conſtant majority of federaliſts. Take the elections for Members of Congreſs laſt fall: it will be found by adding together all the federal and and all the anti-federal votes, that although from the arrangement of the diſtricts, a majority of antifederal members are elected, yet the number of federal votes given in the State, is conſiderably the greateſt. Take the laſt election for "Electors of a Preſident," &c. it will be found, that although ſeveral of the anti-federal counties, particularly Waſhington and Mifflin, polled more votes than they contained votables; and that in many of the federal places, (the city, Delaware, Cheſter and Lancaſter counties) a 5th man of their voters didn't go to the election, yet the preſent friends of M'Kean, gained on that occaſion but a partial victory. All the general elections that have been held ſince the exiſtence of the federal government, in Pennſylvania, have pretty nearly balanced between the parties; but on the preſent occaſion, it is known to a certainty, that three thouſand or more perſons will turn out to vote againſt M'Kean, that could not have been induced to come out to vote for or againſt any other man. It muſt be remembered alſo, that heretofore the anti-federaliſts were able to count upon Cumberland, Franklin, Bedford and Somerſet counties, and all beyond the mountains. Several of thoſe counties, it is now known, will give decided and large majorities in favor of Mr. Roſs: And none of them will, by their vote, ſhew ſo rancorous an enmity againſt the federal government, as on former occaſions. Nor can the change which has taken place in Northampton, in any degree counterbalance the contrary change that has taken place and is daily encreaſing in the weſter parts of the State.

The ſubjoined calculation, is ſubmitted with confidence to the ſcrutiny of the anti-federaliſts themſelves, without any fear of their being able to point out any material error that does not operate in their favor.

AT a meeting of the General Board of the Guardians of the Poor,

PRESENT,

Charles Swift, Jacob Greble,
William Preſton, William Holderneſe,
Luke W. Morris, Samuel Gathiff,
Charles Pleaſants, Matthew Vanduzen,
Geraldus Stockdale, James Engle.

Whereas the diſtreſſed ſituation of many of the inhabitants of the city of Philadelphia ariſing from the preſent calamity, requires immediate relief; and whereas, from the general abſence of the freeholders, and other taxable inhabitants, it has become impracticable to continue the collection of the taxes appropriated for the ſupport of the poor.

Therefore reſolved, That Samuel Gathiff and Charles Pleaſants ſhall be a committee from this Board, to negociate a loan from either of the Banks in this city, amounting to ten thouſand dollars, five thouſand of which to be advanced immediately, and the other five thouſand, when in the opinion of this Board it ſhall become neceſſary.

Reſolved. That ſuch part of the buildings at Maſters' Place, as belong to the Guardians of the Poor, be appropriated for the reception of ſuch children, as may become orphans in conſequence of the preſent calamity, and that Luke W. Morris be appointed to procure Nurſes, and other proper attendants for them, and generally to ſuperintend that part of the Encampment.

Reſolved, That William Helderneſe, William Preſton, James Engle, and Matthew Vanduzen, Guardians of the Poor, in conjunction with Dr. Samuel P. Griffitts, John Evans, Thomas Harriſon and John James; ſhall be a committee for granting relief to the poor and diſtreſſed inhabitants of the city of Philadelphia, the Diſtrict of Southwark, and the Northern-Liberties, which committee ſhall keep an account of the perſons relieved, and the ſums expended; having alſo power to appoint ſuch perſons as they may deem qualified to aſſiſt in viſiting all and every houſe in which ſick or diſtreſſed perſons are reſident, in order that full and effectual relief may be afforded.

Reſolved, That Luke W. Morris be the Treaſurer of the above committee, and that the money which may be borrowed from the Banks, agreeably to a reſolution of this day, be lodged in his hands to defray the expences of the above committee, and ſuch as may be incured in maintaining the orphan children at Maſters' Place. d1 w.

CHARLES SWIFT, Preſident.

Philadelphia, September 25, 1799.

THE Court for the appointment of Guardians of the Poor for the enſuing year, met this day according to law, at the City Hall, in the city of Philadelphia, but a ſufficient number of county magiſtrates not appearing, and the new members of the Board of Guardians returned to ſerve, not being preſent, the Mayor, Aldermen and Juſtice Wheeler, adjourned the Court to the Alms-houſe, in the city of Philadelphia, at eleven o'clock the ſame day; when being aſſembled, together with ten members of the old Board of Guardians, including four members of the old Board of Managers, of the Alms-houſe, and none of the new members appearing, it was thought adviſeable to adjourn the Court to Monday the eleventh day of November next enſuing, then to meet at the City Hall, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to which time and place the ſaid Court is adjourned, of which all perſons concerned are to take notice.

MR. FENNO,

It is with regret I obſerve Mr. Henry Drinker, jun. declines ſerving in the Common Council, this coming year; a number of citizens have agreed to place Mr. Alex. Henry in his room; having ſerved with Mr. Henry in three public inſtitutions in the city, I can with confidence declare, that in my opinion, the citizens would be much pleaſed with his ſervices if he ſhould be elected to that office.

He confeſſed the killing of Mr. Stump on Big Barren; he alſo confeſſed of their killing 17 or 18 beſides—they killed two men near Robertſon's Lick, the day before they burnt Stagle's houſe. They had with them eight horſes and a conſiderable quantity of plunder—ſeven pair of ſaddle bags, &c. They cut of his head;—the women were taken to the Red banks. The above took place on Pond River in the county of Muhlenburg. (Ken. Gaz.)

"Never were Jacobins ſo defeated as at Greenſburg, this week. At a meeting at the Court-houſe, of about 200 only 5 againſt Roſs. In the evening, Findley and Smilie called a meeting of their own—made great ſpeeches. They were anſwered and confuted by Mr. Meers. The cry of TRUNK TRUNK! was raiſed, and when they complained that the friends of Mr. Roſs ought not to meet with them, about 100 withdrew, and left about 30 to do their own dirty work. All goes well below.

STAUNTON, September 18.

On Monday laſt, marched through this place, a detachment of troops, under the command of Lieutenant Ball, on their way to join their regiment at Wincheſter.

NEW-LONDON, September 23.

Yeſterday arrived in this harbour the ſhip James, J. Wood, of Philadelphia, 63 days from St. Lucar. From her long paſſage, ſhe brings no political News.

Sept. 16, in lat. 32, 19: long. 54, 29: ſpoke the Ship Conſtitution, Capt. Talbot, 9 days out; all well. She had in tow, three days, to give her a ſtart, a ſloop, with ſtocks, belonging to this port; name unknown.

In the James, came paſſenger, John M. Pintard, Eſq. American Conſul from Madeira.

HOLT, editor of the Bee, was arreſted on Saturday laſt by the Deputy Marſhal of this ſtate, for publiſhing a ſeditious piece in the Bee, in May laſt, oppoſing the Recruiting ſervice, &c.—He is taken to Hartford, to receive his trial before the Diſtrict Court now ſitting in that city.

BALTIMORE, September 25.

There have been two atempts within the laſt 8 or 10 days to paſs counterfeit checks at the office of Diſcount and Depoſit, in this city; one of the perſons who offered a check of that deſcription has been apprehended and is now in jail; he will probably be tried at the next criminal court, and as a late ſupplement to the law reſpecting forged bank notes or checks has made it felony; in either caſe the deluded and unfortunate wretch will (if convicted) ſuffer death.

NEW-YORK, September 26.

NINE Deaths have been reported at the Health-Office for the laſt 24 hours, ending yeſterday at 12 o'clock.

On Monday morning, the 23d inſt the United States ſhip of war Adams, commanded by Richard V. Morris, Eſq. ſailed from the Hook, on a cruiſe; in going down from the watering place, the preceding afternoon, ſhe gave unqueſtionable proofs of a ſwift ſailing veſſel and a ſtiff ſhip, as ſhe actually out-ſailed one of our beſt pilot boats.

Brig Polly, Richard Bunce, maſter, mounting 8 guns and 16 men, lately arrived from Jamaica, fell in with and brought to about 10 leagues to leeward of the Havannah, a privateer ſchooner named the Mary Anne, belong to New-Providence mounting 10 guns and 35 men, commanded by captain Gardiner Davis, and firſt lieutenant Joſeph Brown, as named in his commiſſion, but found on examination the captain to be John Selby, a native of Stratford, Connecticut, and firſt lieutenant Joſeph Babcock, of Norwich, in ſaid ſtate. The ſaid privateer had been (as acknowledged by the crew) in ports to leeward of Havanna, robbing the inhabitants. After examination, permitted to proceed on her cruize. The above ſchooner having a number of men and ſweeps, boards veſſel unawares in the night, and had been a ſhort time before fired on by one of United States brigs, as well as by the brig Polly. So much for New-Providence pirates.

BY THE LISBON GAZETTE.

A French frigate, of 32 guns, and 400 men, off the Weſtern Iſlands; the Le Gorageux, off the Rock of Liſbon, mounting 28 guns, and 280 men; the Fly, which ſailed from Cadiz, mounting 20 guns, and 180 men: Theſe noted pirates have captured 150 prizes, great part of which were Americans.

In September, 1795, the Population of France was thus computed:——Males, 12,609,369; females 12,391,628; Total, 25,000,992, of whom 11,100,000 were married; 699,756 widoweers; 1,212,512 widows, and 5,519000 men able to bear arms, excluſive of the population of the departments of Mount Blanc, Mount Terrible, and Alpes Maritimes, which was eſtimated at 542,000 ſouls.—According to a calculation formed from official documents in March laſt, the total number of males was 10,275,000, and the number of men capable of carrying arms did not exceed 4,000,000. This dificiency is aſcribed not to the ſanguinary conflicts, foreign and domeſtic, which have emanated from the revolution, but to temporary emigration, the conſequence of their conqueſts in Germany, Italy, &c.—This emigration of conqueſt we believe is pretty nearly at an end; but we queſtion whether the next Cenſus will be much increaſed by the circumſtance.

AT a meeting of the visitors and governors of St. John's college in the State of Maryland, on the 13th day of July 1799,

Resolved, That on the first day of October next, this board will proceed to elect a Professor of English and Grammar, who shall receive, for his services, at the rate of £200 per annum, to be paid quarterly; and that public notice thereof be given, &c. &c,

Test, A. C. HANSON.

N. B. The office aforesaid hath just become vacant, by the resignation of a gentleman whose affairs require the immediate undertaking of a voyage by sea.

It is the duty of the said Professor (to whom is allowed an assistant) to teach the English language grammatically, and to prepare students for a superior school, by teaching them the Latin grammar the Vocabulary, and Cordery. Writing is to be taught to all his scholars at stated hours; and to those students who are not destined for the superior school, are to be taught, at the discretion of their parents, or guardians, Arithmetic, and other branches of science usually taught in English schools—A complete knowledge then of Latin, Arithmetic, &c. is considered indispensible in the professor; and it is expected, that candidates who are not known to the Board, will submit to an examination, as well as produce satisfactory testimonials of their good morals, and fair characters.

The Printers within the United States are requested to insert is their papers the foregoing resolution and remarks, and to repeat the publication, as often as convenience will admit, until the 20th day of September next.

To the Holders of
MILITARY LAND WARRANTS.

THE Subscriber having lately returned from viewing the land, surveyed and appropriated to satisfy the land warrants, issued by the secretary at war, to the officers and soldiers of the late continental army; and having made arrangements with Mr. James Johnson, of Chester county, Pennsylvania, who he left on the land, and who with the assistance of an intelligent inhabitant of that county, will spend five months in exploring the different sections. He will take regular notes, descriptive of the soil, situation, and natural advantages attached to each section in the whole survey—which notes will be placed in the hands of the subscriber previous to the period for locating, thereby enabling him to make the most advantageous locations the priority will admit.

He offers his service to the holders of land warrants of the above description, throughout the United States, to receive their warrants, class them, (as no less quantity than 4000 acres will be registerd at the office of the treasury) have them registered agreeable to law, and attend to make the location at the the time appointed in February next.

For transacting the business, one tenth part of the land specified in the warrants will be required, and no other charge, except the postage of letters. All warrants forwarded and letters addressed to the subscriber, at No. 3, Penn-street, Philadelphia, will receive immediate attention.

A POETICAL EPISTLE TO THE AUTHOR
By an American Gentleman.

[In introducing this celebrated work to the Gentlemen and Ladies of America, I have endeavored to give it a dress proportioned to its distinguished merit, and to the taste of those for whose amusement and delight it is intended. No expence has been spared in the publication; and I flatter myself that the work does not yield, either in paper or print, to any one ever published in America——This edition has an advantage over some former ones, as it contains by way of notes, the minor productions of the author; and, it has an advantage over every other edition, in the Poetical Epistle which is prefixed to it, and which must be extremely gratifying to every lover of literature in this country, as it is a proof that there are Americans who have the taste to admire, the justice to applaud, and the talents to rival the Geniuses of other nations.

Copies will be sent to Boston and other places, as soon as occasions offer.] may 28

TERMS
Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,
FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,

FROM THE COMMENCEMENT
Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,
INCLUDING
The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound; but, as the publisher does not intend to print manmore than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the exact of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"The MEMORIAL of the Subscribers, Citizens, &c. of Philadelphia,

"Respectfully sheweth,

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,
NOW RUNNING BETWEEN
PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,
By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough-Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation, They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has been taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviour of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns spoken of with the highest satisfaction.
